Welcome to D+ June 2019 Newsletter. It is the sixty-sixth edition of the D+ Newsletter compiled with some of the news published in June 2019 on D+.

It is June 2019 and that means we are half way through the current year. Flows of positive news on D+ are stronger than ever. That makes us excited about the upcoming World’s Most Positive Countries 2019 event, which will certainly be more competitive than ever before. As always in November, D+ will publish a list of 10 most positive countries and you can visit https://dailypositive.org/Most_Positive_Countries for more information.

On the other hand, our online store Babatye https://www.babatye.com/ continued to have new winter collections. Also, do not forget our eBay store at http://www.ebay.com.au/usr/dailypositive. All the profits from our store will go as donation to D+. Finally, stay tuned for our social media presence with Babatye.

D+ is a non-profit media initiative that heavily relies on the generous support from everyone. Please consider a donation today.

Top News Of The Month

Top News Of The Month is selected based on the feedback from D+ Facebook fans from around the world.

Iranian movie Castle of Dreams won the best feature film award at the Golden Goblet Awards section of the 22nd Shanghai International Film Festival.

Let your voice be heard and join us on Facebook.
D+ News: June 2019

- Ashleigh Barty ended Australia’s 46-year wait for a French Open women’s singles tennis title by beating Czech teenager Marketa Vondrousova 6-1, 6-3 in the final.
- Bangladesh was elected as a member of the prestigious Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nations for the term 2020-2022 from the Asia-Pacific region.
- Canada’s parliament approved a bill banning the capture and breeding of cetaceans such as whales and dolphins.
- China successfully launched a rocket from a mobile launch platform in the Yellow Sea off Shandong province, sending two technology experiment satellites and five commercial satellites into space. It is China’s first space launch from a sea-based platform.
- English scientists have found that 3D motion signals separate into two ‘pathways’ in the brain at an early stage of the image transmission between the eyes and the brain.
- Fiji was crowned champions of the World Rugby Seven Series, after winning the Paris Cup final 35-24 over New Zealand.
- French restaurant Mirazur was crowned the world’s best restaurant at an awards ceremony put on by British trade magazine Restaurant in Singapore.
- India unveiled a spacecraft, named Chandrayaan-2, which is expected to take off for the moon. Chandrayaan-2 will be the country’s second lunar mission.
- Iranian movie Castle of Dreams won the best feature film award at the Golden Goblet Awards section of the 22nd Shanghai International Film Festival.
- Dutch footballer Frenkie de Jong was named as the Best Young Player of the Tournament at the inaugural season of the UEFA Nations League.
- Portugal won the inaugural UEFA Nations League football competition beating the Netherlands 1-0 in the final.
- Qatar Airways was voted the World’s Best Airline for the fifth time at the 2019 Skytrax World Airline Awards.
- A team of Russian and international researchers has discovered a previously unknown population of ancient humans in Siberia, dubbed as Ancient North Siberians.
- Saudi Arabia and South Korea signed an $8.3 billion economic cooperation pact during Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman’s visit to Seoul aimed at strengthening bilateral ties between the two governments.
- Anti-corruption activist Zuzana Caputova sworn in as Slovakia’s first female president.
- A team of researchers from Sweden, Canada and the USA has reported that hyenas once roamed Canada’s Arctic Plains based on fossil teeth, found in the Yukon, analysis belonging to hyenas one million years ago.
- A research group led by scientists from the Washington State University, USA has found a way to turn daily plastic waste products into jet fuel.