Welcome to D+ September 2019 Newsletter. It is the sixty-ninth edition of the D+ Newsletter compiled with some of the news published in September 2019 on D+.

The D+ World’s Most Positive Countries 2019 is in full swing. Our international reviewers are busy with their ongoing review, our internal teams are working hard in putting all things together and we request you to have your say on the global poll at http://goo.gl/iUVhh.

D+ introduces this list of most positive countries based on a positivity index. For more details and regular update follow us at http://www.dailypositive.org/Most_Positive_Countries.

Do not forget to visit our online store Babatye https://www.babatye.com/ as it continued to have new collections. Also, do not forget our eBay store at http://www.ebay.com.au/usr/dailypositive. All the profits from our stores will go as donation to D+. Finally, join Babatye on Facebook and stay up-to-date at https://www.facebook.com/babatye.

D+ is a non-profit media initiative that heavily relies on the generous support from everyone. Please consider a donation today.

Top News Of The Month

Costa Rica won the Champions of the Earth Policy Leadership award for its role in the protection of nature and its commitment to policies to combat climate change.

Let your voice be heard and join us on Facebook.
D+ News: September 2019

- Argentine football legend Lionel Messi claimed his sixth FIFA Footballer of The Year Award in Milan, Italy.
- Australian immunologist Professor Jacques Miller won the prestigious Lasker Basic Medical Research Award 2019 for his contributions in the discovery of the roles of key immune cells – an award that is widely recognized as one of the highest international honors in medical research.
- Vienna, the capital of Austria, retained the top spot of the most liveable cities among the 140 cities around the world, according to the annual Global Liveability Index researched by The Economist Intelligence Unit.
- Sir Fazle Hasan Abed of Bangladesh was awarded the prestigious 2019 Yidan Prize for Education Development in recognition of his initiatives that revolutionized how marginalized children from resource-poor communities learn.
- Nineteen-year-old Canadian Bianca Andreescu sealed her first Grand Slam title, downing 23-time major champion Serena Williams in the 2019 US Open women’s singles final, 6-3, 7-5, and became the first Canadian to win a Grand Slam singles title.
- A social security agreement between China and Japan covering nationals working in the other country took effect. Under the agreement, Japan will exempt China’s dispatched employees, crew members, flight attendants, diplomatic and consular personnel and civil servants working in the country from the obligation to pay two major local annuities, while China will do the same for their Japanese counterparts.
- Costa Rica won the 2019 Champions of the Earth Policy Leadership award, the UN’s highest environmental honor, for its role in the protection of nature and its commitment to ambitious policies to combat climate change.
- Palaeontologists from Germany and Scotland have identified a prehistoric crocodile that lived around 180 million years ago by analyzing fossils unearthed in the UK and Germany.
- Mexican photojournalist, Guillermo Arias, won the prestigious 2019 Visa d’or news photojournalism prize for his depiction of the Central American migrant caravans moving towards the USA.
- Norway topped the 2019 Social Progress Index prepared by Deloitte, a measure of a country’s social and environmental performance that is independent of economic factors.
- Two Singaporean restaurants, Odette and Les Amis, were awarded the maximum three Michelin stars for the first time ever, by the French-based prestigious food guide Michelin Guide.
- Primož Roglič became the first Slovenian cyclist to win a Grand Tour at the 2019 Vuelta a España cycling stage race competition.
- Spain completed their undefeated run at the FIBA Basketball World Cup 2019 in China with a 95-75 victory against Argentina in the final.