Three months of 2026 have already flown by—a reminder that time waits for no one. At D+, we sometimes wish we could rewind in order to prevent the wars that continue to claim millions of lives. While we cannot change the past, we can choose how we move forward. Together, we can shine a light on the good in the world—even for those starting all these conflicts. So let's keep sharing and celebrating the positive stories unfolding around us, because we certainly will.
